AP 2410 Policy and Administrative Procedures

Reference:

Education Code Section 70902

- 1.0 Board policies are regularly reviewed by the Chancellor's Cabinet, which recommends revisions to ensure currency and compliance with state and federal laws. Any employee, student, or member of the public may initiate a review of any policy by submitting a request or recommendation in writing to the Chancellor's Office. In accordance with District policies, Chancellor's Cabinet is composed of representatives of students, faculty, classified employees, and administration. Other employees with expertise in specific areas governed by a District policy may be consulted during the revision process.
- 2.0 All policies and administrative procedures are available to employees and the public through the offices of the Chancellor, the College Presidents, the Provost of Continuing Education and the District web site.
